Thanks Maggie, I really appreciate your help!

I'm doing the same - this weekend heading up to Breck to visit a high school friend who's in town and next weekend flying to Ohio to my best pal's house for a mini girls reunion/goddess party. I can't wait! As much as I love my home... I really need to get out for a while!

Have a fun and fabulous weekend!!

Yes, on hardness-based criteria, feel free to give me a ring whenever or set time up if that's easier. I keep my calendar up-to-date.

Hey Maggie, Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)

And... on a work-related topic... I'd love to talk with you next week sometime if you have any time about hardness-dependent criteria in connection with ND's proposed WQS revisions. Tina said you're a great resource on this issue. I'm still doing some research but if it's o.k. I'll put something on the calendar - maybe mid-week?

Have a great evening - and an awesome and amazing birthday!!!!
